CUSTOM IN VOGUE
A CENTURY BACK
REVIVED BY WILSONREADS MESSAGE TO CONGRESSPresident Wilson Appears On the Floor of the House.

GETS ENTHUSIASTIC GREETING

Senators, Representatives and Others Crowd the Hall, and Give the Chief Magistrate Respectful Attention and Applause—Main Features of the Tariff Bill as Framed by the Ways and Means Committee.

Washington, April 8. — President Wilson personally appeared before congress at 12:30 p. m. today, when he delivered his message dealing with the tariff to senators and representatives gathered in the house of representatives in joint session.

The scene was a brilliant one. Members of congress filled the lower floor, while in the galleries were representatives of the judiciary, the diplomatic corps and official Washington. Society leaders also were present in force.

The president's appearance was the signal for an enthusiastic greeting, to which he smilingly nodded response.
He was given close attention during the delivery of his message, and was frequently applauded.

Mr. Wilson first went to the office of Speaker Clark, and later was escorted by the latter to the speaker's chair and introduced to the assemblage.

No president since John Adams has availed himself of the right to read his own message to congress. President Wilson was asked what motive impelled him to renew the custom of a century ago. "The reasons are very simple," he said. "I think that that is the only dignified way for the president to address the houses at the opening of the session."

THE MESSAGE IN FULL

To the Senate and House of Representatives:

I have called the congress together in extraordinary session because a duty was laid upon the party now in power at the recent elections which it ought to perform promptly in order that the burden carried by the people under existing law may be lightened as soon as possible and in order, also, that the business interests of the country may not be kept too long in suspense as to what the fiscal changes

PRESIDENT WILSON.

are to be to which they will be required to adjust themselves. It is clear to the whole country that the tariff duties must be altered. They must be changed to meet the radical alteration in the conditions of our economic life which the country has witnessed with-

In the last generation, when the whole face and method of our industrial and commercial life were being changed beyond recognition the tariff schedules have remained what they were before the change began or have moved in the direction they were given when no large circumstance of our industrial development was what it is today. Our task is to square them with the actual facts. The sooner that is done the sooner we shall escape from suffering from the facts and the sooner our men of business will be free to thrive by the law of nature (the nature of free business) instead of by the law of legislation and artificial arrangement.

How Tariff Has Grown.

We have seen tariff legislation wander very far afield in our day—very far indeed from the field in which our prosperity might have had a normal growth and stimulation. No one who looks the facts squarely in the face or knows anything that lies beneath the surface of action can fail to perceive the principles upon which recent tariff legislation has been based. We long ago passed beyond the modest notion of "protecting" the industries of the country and moved boldly forward to the idea that they were entitled to the direct patronage of the government.
For a long time—a time so long that the men now active in public policy hardly remember the conditions that preceded it—we have sought in our tariff schedules to give each group of manufacturers or producers what they themselves thought that they needed in order to maintain a practically exclusive market as against the rest of the world. Consciously or unconsciously we have built up a set of privileges and exemptions from competition behind which it was easy by any, even the crudest, forms of combination to organize monopoly, until at last nothing is normal, nothing is obliged to stand the tests of efficiency and economy, in our world of big business, but everything thrives by concerted arrangement. Only new principles of action will save us from a final hard crystallization of monopoly and a complete loss of the influences that quicken enterprise and keep independent energy alive.

Must Abolish Privilege.

It is plain what those principles must be. We must abolish everything that bears even the semblance of privilege or of any kind of artificial advantage and put our business men and producers under the stimulation of a constant necessity to be efficient, economical and enterprising, masters of competitive supremacy, better workers and merchants than any in the world.
Aside from the duties laid upon articles which we do not and probably cannot produce, therefore, and the duties laid upon luxuries and merely for the sake of the revenues they yield, the object of the tariff duties henceforth laid must be effective competition, the whetting of American wits by contest with the wits of the rest of the world.

It would be unwise to move toward this end headlong, with reckless haste or with strokes that cut at the very roots of what has grown up among us by long process and at our own invitation. It does not alter a thing to upset it and break it and deprive it of a chance to change. It destroys it.
We must make changes in our fiscal laws, in our fiscal system, whose object is development, a more free and wholesome development, not revolution or upset or confusion. We must build up trade, especially foreign trade. We need the outlet and the enlarged field of energy more than we ever did before. We must build up industry as well and must adopt freedom in the place of artificial stimulation only so far as it will build, not pull down. In dealing with the tariff the method by which this may be done will be a matter of judgment, exercised item by item. To some not accustomed to the excitements and responsibilities of greater freedom our methods may in some respects and at some points seem heroic, but remedies may be heroic and yet be remedies. It is our business to make sure that they are genuine remedies. Our object is clear. If our motive is above just challenge and only an occasional error of judgment is chargeable against us we shall be fortunate.

Thorough, but Moderate.

We are called upon to render the country a great service in more matters than one. Our responsibility

WALKING TO SAFETY ON TELEGRAPH CABLES

When the flood struck Dayton, causing tremendous loss of life and property, some of the inhabitants sought safety from the waters by walking along the telegraph cables, as shown in this remarkable photograph.

Again Use the Torch—Police Protect Meeting.

London, April 8.—It is expected that Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst will be released from Holloway jail at any hour. The assertion that she has been forcibly pumped fed is officially denied, but nevertheless it is known that she is very weak as the result of her hunger strike.

Solicitor Marshall, who visited Mrs.
Pankhurst says she is in a very serious condition. She has taken nothing but a little water since she was put in the jail, and will die if she remains without food much longer.

Miss Annie Kenney, who presided at the weekly meeting of the suffragists in Pavilion music hall, on Piccadilly circus, said that in a few days, perhaps a few hours, "our peerless leader, Mrs. Pankhurst, will be with us again." The suffragets expect to see her promise to attend the meeting at Albert hall on April 10 fulfilled, although if she is free at that time she may be too ill to go unless she is carried there on a bed.

A force of 100 policemen guarded the Pavilion music hall and prevented an attempt to rush the hall by anti-suffragets, who were forced to content themselves with booing and hissing. During the meeting Miss Kenney denied the allegation of the Standard that the suffragets had said that they were now willing to commit murder.
She said the attacks would still be confined to property.

The militants set fire to and destroyed a large unoccupied mansion at Norwich. No arrests were made.
They also set fire to three other un-

VIOLENCE AT BUFFALO

Cars Stoned by Mobs, a Patrolman and Strikebreaker Being Hurt.

Buffalo, N. Y., April 8. — Buffalo's streetcar strike continues to bring forth disorders, and in spite of the fact that over 500 strikebreakers have already been imported, only a few cars were in operation. Traffic on the east and south sides was totally demoralized, but under heavy police protection the company managed to operate cars on the Main street line.
The few cars that are running have been attacked with stones and other missiles. A rock struck Patrolman Kingston, who was on a Main street car, in the face, destroying the sight of both eyes and breaking his nose.
A strikebreaker, name unknown, had his skull fractured. He is unconscious in a hospital.

Washington, April 8. — President Wilson has personally taken charge of the situation created by the Japanese ambassador's protest against the enactment of the pending alien land laws in California, which are aimed directly at the Japanese. The president summoned Senator Works and Representative Kent to the White House for a conference on the situation. He has arranged for a second conference with Secretary of the Interior Lane and will later discuss the situation with Mr. Bryan.

even somewhat of a rarity.

ADDRESSES SOLONS IN PERSON

Relief Measures Immediately Launched and Will Be Speedily Enacted Into Laws — Governor Suggests State Assistance to Building and Loan Associations and Gold Medals For Heroes—Federal Aid Promised.

Columbus, O., April 8. — Governor Cox, in describing his impressions of the great flood, with the devastation of which he had grappled, its causes and the remedial legislation he thought best to be enacted, personally urged both branches of the Ohio legislature to devote its energies to emergency flood legislation and the completion of the administration program for the session.

This undertaking, Speaker Swain announced, could be completed in two weeks by working Saturdays and Mondays.

The governor's first recommendation was the awarding of gold medals to Arthur Bell, the telephone operator, whose sticking to his post enabled the governor and the outside world to know the plight of the city of Dayton, and to Thomas E. Green, traffic manager of the Central Union Telephone company, whose all-night warnings told the whole Muskingum valley the flood was coming and whose vigilant work served to keep flooded districts in touch with the outside world.

The governor urged the stoppage of dumping rubbish into streams and because of the narrowing of banks and the erection of bridges with insufficient clearance said supervision of the plans for railroad bridges should be given to the utilities commission or the state highway commissioner.

He wished municipalities granted the right to borrow money from banks on short-time notes to raise money for immediate cleaning up. He urged letting out the "gold of the state treasury to building and loan associations" and the creation of county and municipal commissions by appointment respectively of mayors and prebate judges to deal with the replacement and repair of public works.

Federal Aid Likely.

The sum of $25,000,000 for the relief of flood sufferers in Ohio was proposed in a resolution offered at Washington by Congressman Ansberry.
The resolution would confer authority on the secretary of war to use that sum for the relief of the sufferers, for replacing army stores used in the relief work and all expenses of the department in connection with the flood.

In the senate Senator Burton proposed a resolution for a $2,000,000 grant for the relief of Ohio flood sufferers. The Burton resolution proposed that the war department be first reimbursed for the amount it had expended in relief work and that the balance be placed at the disposal of the American Red Cross.

Secretary McAdoo of the treasury department will deposit $2,000,000 in the national banks of Dayton to relieve the money shortage resulting from the flood, accepting government, state, city or county bonds as security.

Governor Cox's address was followed by the introduction of remedial legislation. Senator Mooney offered in the senate the resolution to submit to the people the question of amending the constitution to make public bonds exempt from taxation. Such bonds have been taxable only three months.
The excuse for resubmitting the question decided last fall is the claim that it is now difficult to sell city and

With all members present and the lobby full of interested citizens the regular meeting of the city council was held Monday night, and many important matters acted upon.

The presence of the large number of citizens was due for the most part to expected action on the Sunday baseball question, but neither of the petitions was presented, and the question was not touched upon, although at least one of the petitions containing the names of several hundred persons, was held by one of the citizens who was awaiting the presentation of the petition from the other side of the question.

After the minutes of the last meeting had been read in a disconnected manner and correction made, W. B.
Rodgers, representing the G. A. R.
Encampment committee, presented a resolution for adoption, granting the privilege of the streets to the Encampment committee.

The resolution was adopted, and gives the committee the right to control the placing of booths and receiving the proceeds of the same to assist in defraying expenses. In reading the resolution the second and third time the clerk became tangled up and twisted the resolution into an invitation from council to the G. A. R. of Ohio to hold the encampment here.

Bowman Hess then appeared before council and offered to donate a small piece of ground at the intersection of Washington avenue and East street if council would agree to improve the tract, using it for street purposes in order to eliminate the sharp point at the intersection of the two streets, and make the turn less dangerous. The offer was accepted and a vote of thanks extended to Mr. Hess.

Pope Gregg, representing the Humane Society, introduced an ordinance to eliminate the stray dog nuisance in the city by providing for a license for each animal at a cost of $1, and the stray animals not bearing a tag to be impounded and if not claimed within 72 hours, to be killed in a humane manner. He pointed out how the same kind of an ordinance in other cities had proven a great factor in reducing the number of rabid dogs. To keep a dog the owner, under the ordinance, must pay $1 for a license tag, and keep the tag on the dog's collar when it is at large. The ordinance carried a section repealing an ordinance against vicious dogs, which was passed in 1870. After the first reading member Durant moved that it be referred to the Law & Ordinance committee, and the motion carried.

Veil, as chairman of the committee appointed to investigate the Zimmerman ditch, and take the necessary steps of preparing the matter to be presented to the County Commissioners, reported that they had made the recommendations necessary, and had them embodied in a resolution.
After the matter had been discussed from all sides, during which time some members thought the plan of connecting the two disconnected sewers with 15-inch sewer, was not a good one, and others claimed it was the only logical solution, the resolution passed, Cox and Durant voting against it.

The oiling ordinance next came up for passage, and Cox and Sheets voted no. Durant recalled his vote and changed it to a negative one, giving as his reason that he believed the ordinance should be passed for one year only. Holding that the ordinance failed to pass, he voted for a reconsideration of the ordinance, but President Light insisted that the ordinance passed, and the affair was dropped.

It has since been ascertained that the ordinance was killed, and that unless immediate action is taken in reconsidering the ordinance and passing it for one year, no streets can be oiled under it until late in the spring or summer. As it now stands, no oiling can be done as planned, notwithstanding that the ordinance has been grinding through council for some time.

A petition asking that Pearl street be opened up across the B. & O. railroad was referred to the Street and Alley committee.

The Public Service committee, to investigate the Lakeview avenue improvement, was given until the next meeting to make report.

The North street improvement was carried over until the next meeting, owing to some tangle over notification of non-residents.

The proposed improvement of Circle avenue from Main to Fayette street was mentioned, but no action taken.

A petition bearing the names of several score citizens residing in the east end in the neighborhood of "the point" where Columbus avenue and Market street intersect, urged council to appropriate the "point" for park or playground purposes. The petition was referred to the Ways and Means committee. The ground in question is one of the most unsightly portions of the city.

A petition urging council to employ a city sealer of weights and measures was referred to the Law & Ordinance committee.

Mayor Smith's veto to the traffic ordinance was read, and the reasons cited were that part of the ordinance would not be agreeable with the rural citizens and that the enforcement of part of the ordinance would result in much dissatisfaction.

McLean was of the opinion that some of the members of council were placed at more inconvenience than the rural citizens. Rothrock upheld the ordinance, stating that such an ordinance was necessary. Durant objected only to removing the hitch-racks west of the court house. It was brought out that owing to the length of time that had elapsed since its passage, the veto was not effective.

A report from the mayor for fines and licenses collected during the month of March, showed a total of some $20.50.

The city auditor's report showed $9,589.58 balance at the beginning of this month.

McLean then presented a petition for the improvement of Washington avenue from the intersection of Court street to Elm street. The petition was signed by most of the property owners, and called for brick pavement 28 feet in width the entire distance on the street.

Rothrock moved that plans and specifications and the necessary ordinance be prepared and presented at the next meeting of council, so that the street may be paved with brick this summer.

Chapman asked about the resolution for the improvement of Oakland avenue from Clinton to Leesburg avenue. The resolution was found, read and passed, after which adjournment was taken.

Charming Colonial Party

The charm of the Colonial, of special import to the Daughters of the American Revolution, contributed to make the April meeting of the local chapter at the home of Mrs.
George Jackson Monday afternoon altogether one of the pretties and most enjoyable of the year.

Assisting as the afternoon's hostesses were Mesdames H. L. Hadley, Will Sprenger, Bella Ustick, Joseph H. Harper, John Durant, Howard McLean and Miss Jackson.

There was a large attendance of Daughters and a number of guests, but the spaciousness of the Jackson home accommodated them without inconvenience.

It was a "Colonial party" in every sense of the word, with old time songs, old fashioned refreshments of floating island, pound cake and tea, such as our grandmothers would have served, and distinctively the feature of the day, "A Glimpse of Our Grandmother's Treasures," the Daughters bringing their cherished heirlooms for the occasion. Around a beautiful mound of yellow snapdragons and fern were arranged these treasures of early days, forming a genuine loan collection on a scale hardly to be expected from the possessions of a single chapter.

There was rare old china nearly 150 years old, the first coal oil lamp ever burned in Washington C. H., samplers which showed the exquisite needlework of our grandmothers, miniatures and pictures, filmy laces, quaint old boxes, silver worn thin with age, old-fashioned jewelry and other relics over which the guests lingered long. A roll of parchment on which the articles were catalogued was given to each guest.

Mrs. Sina L. Murray and Mrs.
Lona G. Hughey kindly lent their aid in the afternoon's music. Mrs.
Hughey singing beautifully the old time favorites, "Last Rose of Summer" and "Annie Laurie". Mrs.
Murray played the accompaniments and had the Daughters all sing the old, round "Scotland's Burning" which provoked considerable amusement.

Throughout the rooms were tall vases of pink and yellow snap-dragons, effectively arranged. Mrs. E.
B. Kehoe, of Lebanon and Mrs. W.
M. Mitchener, of Dayton, were out-of-town guests.

Students Base Ball League Organizes

Monday afternoon the managers and captains of the various schools met and organized for the coming baseball season.

The schools represented in the league are the Sunnyside, Central, Cherry Hill and the Freshmen team of the High school. The league was organized three years ago by General Secretary Zaner and has been continued each year with increasing success. The cup has been won both seasons by the Freshman team and it was decided when the cup was presented by Walter Hamilton that the team which won the cup three years in succession was to become sole owner of it.

Some lively interest is expected from all schools, and a general quickening of the young America blood is anticipated.

At the meeting Monday Forest Gilmer was elected president; Robt.
McFadden, vice president; Edwin Jones, secretary and Carl Lloyd, treasurer. The league is under the supervision of Secretary Zaner, and Physical Director McClung will officiate at all games.

Completing Plans For Holding The Big Two Days' Horse Show

Pavilion Has Been Placed In Condition Once More and Everything Looks Good For Horse Show to be Held Here April 21 and 22--Wallace's Orchestra Of Cleveland Will be Here as Originally Planned.

With the intense excitement following Ohio's deluge by water sub-siding, the big event of local importance in the near future is the Horse Show, which had to be postponed to Monday and Tuesday, April 21 and 22. With four sessions, covering two days, instead of the one day as originally planned, the committee has been enabled to arrange a much more satisfactory program and one that will please the audiences greatly.

A letter from Mr. James M. Wallace, manager of Wallace's Vocal orchestra, of Cleveland, received today, advised the committee that by making some sharp changes in his bookings he would be enabled to fill the date here, and this will be good news as Wallace's orchestra is the only organization of its kind in existence and has a reputation extending from coast to coast. Mr. Wallace enclosed a tentative musical program which greatly pleased the committee, inasmuch as it contains many new numbers never before heard here.

During the past week the work of cleaning the big sales pavilion has been in progress and now a visit to the huge barn finds absolutely no evidence of the visit of the waters. The pavilion will be ready for its thousands of visitors and the new decorations that will be in place, the lighting system and the general appearance of the barn will be pleasing.

The sale of seats will open at Baldwin's Drug Store Saturday morning at nine o'clock and the plans for all four sessions will be placed on sale at the same time. Those who had secured reservations for the show are permitted to allow them to stand or to have their money refunded and a very few seats have been redeemed, showing the general interest in the attraction.

Bridegroom 80 And Bride 50

W. F. McNeal, past his 79th year, who until recently has lived in Clinton county, and is a retired farmer, and Miss Mary E. Kilpatrick, 50, of this city, were united in marriage at the Probate Judge's office Tuesday afternoon, by Squire J. B. Koontz.

The bridegroom appeared at the office Monday and was informed that it was necessary to bring the prospective bride with him. He reappeared Tuesday afternoon, bringing his bride-to-be with him, and after securing a license, had Justice Koontz summoned.

Justice Koontz, apparently somewhat frustrated, commenced the ceremony by calling the bride-to-be "Miss McNeal," and was about to marry "Miss McNeal" to "Mr. Kilpatrick" when the deputy halted him and started him aright. The groom has been married twice before, both wives being dead. They will make their future home in this city.

The Bell operators handle over 3000 calls per day from 900 telephones. If calls are accepted by name, either the operators must memorize 900 names and numbers or they must take the time to look up the correct numbers, which causes your call to be delayed, also calls for all other subscribers which are handled by your operator.

To memorize the names of 900 subscribers and associate with the name the correct number, is a feat few persons can perform; none can do it without long experience. Can you do it? This is the reason why we are asking your co-operation and which we believe will result in better service for you.

An Organization of Doers

The value of the Young Men's Christian Association as an organization of active service in the community impressed itself as never before during the stress and urgency of the past two weeks.

It was a time when needs were imperative—they must be responded to with dispatch and wisdom, with trained judgment, not on mere blind, generous impulse.

Without a capable head this was impossible. Excitement charged the air, enthusiastic zeal threatened to over-ride judgment. It was an opportunity which demanded something beyond the opinion of the individual.

The Y. M. C. A. organization supplied just the head needed for the crisis. It provided a basis for operations and its management brought together a substantial body of active business men from which was chosen the capable committee for relief of flood sufferers.

Not but that Washington C. H. would have done its part without a Y. M. C. A., but the factor of its thoroughly equipped organization caused the work to be done more capably, more thoroughly and with more expedition than it could have been done without.

Since the flood emergency the Y. M. C. A. holds a distinctive place in this community as never before. Its effective organization is appreciated as never before, and the deeper meaning of Y. M. C. A. work in creating a great organized body, in an atmosphere so charged with the enthusiasm of youth that even those mature feel its rejuvenation, a body of eager willing, helpful workers, more fully realized.

Not alone in this city but from all through the flood districts came reports of the work of Y. M. C. A. boys and the many acts of heroism they performed. Their systematic training proved its value in the sudden call.

In our city the Y. M. C. A. building was given over to relief work during the week of the flood. Its officers abandoned their regular schedule and worked day and night for those in the stricken cities. They were assisted, and splendidly assisted, by hundreds of men, women, boys and girls, in town and county, and it is not detracting from their praise to give to the organization of the Y. M. C. A. its just dues. It worked in perfect harmony with the relief committee, furnishing the place for receiving supplies and from which communication with the flood centers was established and it opened its doors to the refugees sent here regardless of all inconvenience.

The Y. M. C. A. has firmly established itself in this community as a powerful organization ready for any emergency.

How to Live a Hundred Years

By
LILLIAN RUSSELL,
Actress and Noted
Beauty

WE SHOULD ALL LIVE TO BE A HUNDRED IF WE WOULD ONLY AVOID FRICTION. JUST AS WITH MACHINES, OUR LOSS OF VITALITY, OF FORCE, IS DUE TO THE SENSELESS SCRAPING OF BODY AND MIND AGAINST THEIR ENVIRONMENTS. AND TO A LACK OF SLEEP, THE RIGHT KIND OF SLEEP, IS DUE THE MOST OF OUR MENTAL AND PHYSICAL FRICTION AND THEREFORE OF OUR PREMATURE AGING.

Every person should sleep calmly, dreamlessly, for a full eight hours out of the twenty-four. If he does this it means that during one-third of life consciousness is suspended—in short, he is NOT LIVING IN THE SENSE OF EXPENDING VITALITY. And then we are given a perfectly simple little mathematical problem. If, all told, the years of such a man's life number one hundred, then when he celebrates his hundredth birthday he is NOT REALLY A DAY OLDER THAN SIXTY-SIX AND TWO-THIRDS YEARS. That is the actual term of his active life, and no one considers that decrepitude.

You must not only sleep eight hours, but you must WAKE FROM SLEEP WITH A LAUGH. That not merely makes you feel youthful and happy, but if you laugh at yourself so early in the day you are sure to get ahead of anybody else.

I believe that a BEAUTIFUL AND YOUTHFUL MIND IS ABSOLUTELY ESSENTIAL TO A BEAUTIFUL AND HEALTHY BODY. A really intelligent person will want to be in good physical condition and will be sensible enough to TAKE CARE OF HIS BODY.

Poetry For Today

GOD KNOWS BEST.

Sunshine and shadows—evening bells and prayer; Darkening clouds and rainbows—these we all must share.
Crowns of thorns and roses; rest, eternal rest, Oh heart of mine—don't worry—God knows best.

If He filled our days with sunshine and never any rain,
If He filled our lives with gladness and never any pain,
We would be so happy, we would love this golden land, We'd cease to look for guidance from His protecting hand.

He sometimes sends His moonbeams—then darkest, starless night Lest we forget our Father's Home and never long for light.

So let your Savior guide you when with sorrow oppressed, Oh heart of mine—don't worry—God knows best.

INTERESTING BITS OF NEWS

Thursday afternoon a large hill east of Aberdeen, Brown county, started to travel. It cut quite a swath in its slide, completely obliterated the historic state road that happened in its path, but fortunately no houses being in the way no particular damage was done except to the landscape.

Weather Forecaster Marsh, of Winton Place, Cincinnati, says the cause of the recent severe storms, tornadoes, cyclones and floods, causing such great damage and loss of life was the Vernal equinox on March 21 and 22, coupled with a total eclipse of the moon. Then the planet Mercury was nearest the sun, and earth, causing cyclones, floods, etc. Since early winter, Marsh has predicted a flood in the Ohio valley.

Plans are being made for a large influx of visitors to the Canal zone, on the opening of the World's Fair, at San Francisco. A deal has just been made between the Panama government and an English syndicate for the construction of a new $1,000,000 hotel of the most modern type, to accommodate 500 guests.

The public libraries in several towns in England have a new idea and one which has found favor with the British public. Small bookcases full of books are placed in the railroad stations, from which travelers are invited to help themselves. Borrowers are requested to return the books at the end of their journey or to send them back by post. So far the books have been in constant use, but in no way has unfair advantage been taken of the originator of the scheme.

The redwood stump at Guerneville, Cal., from which was cut the timber for the First Baptist church, of that city, "the church built from the one tree" is to be cut up and manufactured into souvenirs for sale to pay off the church debt. The church was built in 1875.

Richmond, Va., is said to be the only city of near its size that has no public library. A discussion is now on as to whether or not aid should be asked of Andrew Carnegie, but no conclusion has been reached. Some time this spring a library of 10,000 volumes, given the city by Miss Grace Arentz, will be opened.

The assistant superintendent of the big Wallace circus reported to the owner that the 12 elephants turned loose during the flood had stampeded tearing up trees, fighting each other, charging small buildings, and that instead of going to the hills after they had been released, they remained about their quarters and that 8 were drowned. He saw one succeed in reaching high ground, where it lay down, evidently wounded, and died. The entire herd of camels perished. All the cat family, lions, tigers, leopards, etc., were swept away and all the hay eating animals drowned. About 300 horses, all except a few ring horses, perished.

Chicago will shortly receive a check for $2,500,000, this sum being 55 per cent of the net profits for 1912 from the operation of the surfact traction lines.

Charlie P. Taft, brother of the ex-president, has recently purchased the Cary ranch, near Craig Rount county, Colorado, comprising about 20,000 acres. It is understood Mr. Taft will use the estate for stock raising.

Contracts have been let by the B. & O. railroad for commodious passenger stations of modern design at Walkerton and Syracuse, Ind. The station at Walkerton will be of pressed brick construction and that at Syracuse, similar in many respects. Pressed brick platforms will surround the buildings. Work will be commenced as soon as the contractors can assemble their material and machinery.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Down in Concord township a young carpenter from here was employed to do some work for a farmer. At the house of the latter was a beautiful young lady with whom the young carpenter soon became smitten. When Saturday came he hurried home and got all his Sunday toggery ready, and on Sunday evening, he went back for a "spark". It came off. He "set her" rather late and the next morning there was a bill for light and fuel. Here was a quandary. The young man was out of "stamps". What was to be done. After some parley he settled the matter by mending a dilapidated washboard for the young lady to use in doing the washing for the family.

Fort Worth, Tex., April 8.—Suffering agony, Lydia Gustin at a hospital told how her husband, Ralph, driven by jealousy and remorse, had burned out her eyes with carbolic acid and then committed suicide by putting a bullet in his brain. Gustin had been ill and out of work and could not bear to have his wife be the bread winner for his family. In a fit of madness he tied his wife to the bed and poured the burning acid over her eyes. "There," he cried, "now you are blind. Gracie can sing on the streets and make a living for you." Gracie is a 13-year-old daughter.

Memphis, Tenn., April 8.—The Mississippi river here broke all previous records. In spite of this fact the crest has not reached Memphis, and the river has two or three more days to rise. The forward end of the crest, he says, is now just above New Madrid, Mo., two days above Memphis.

OHIO HAPPENINGS

Zanesville's Heavy Loss.

Zanesville, O., April 8.—The seven carloads of provisions, bedding and home furnishings from Pittsburg were distributed among the flood-ravished homes by National Guardsmen, five companies of whom are still on duty here. General A. J. Logan, director of charities of Pittsburg, who spent the night here, issued a nation-wide appeal for help, asking that contributions of money be made. It is estimated that the loss to homes in Zanesville will amount to $1,000,000, and only $2,000 of outside help has been received.

Dayton Conditions Improve.

Dayton, O., April 8.—General George Wood, in command of the troops, and Colonel Harry E. Arthur Drais Asks Judgment Against Attorney

H. H. Sanderson Who Defended Drais in the Probate Court on A Lunacy Charge is Made Defendant in Novel Action.

NO ATTORNEY SIGNS THE DRAIS PETITION

Extraordinary Proceeding is Launched on Monday in Common Pleas Court. Plaintiff Asks Judgment for $10,000.

An action decidedly out of the ordinary run of court procedure was begun on Monday in the Common Pleas court by Arthur Drais against Attorney H. H. Sanderson.

The plaintiff Drais (Arthur) it will be remembered was adjudged insane by the Probate Court of this county on the 1st day of October, 1910, and was committed to the State Hospital for the Insane at Columbus remaining in that institution until April 8th, 1912, when, according to the petition, he was discharged.

Proceeding the inquest of lunacy in the Probate court it will be remembered Drais was incarcerated in the city prison once or twice on different charges and there was a good deal of excitement about the city at the time. Proceedings in the Mayor's court against Drais were dropped and the lunacy proceedings launched. In the proceedings in the Probate court Mr. Sanderson appeared for Drais and it is as to the attorney's conduct of the defense in those proceedings that Drais now complains.

Among other charges which he makes in his petition against his former attorney is that certain witnesses were not called in his behalf and that no argument was made by Mr. Sanderson. He also complains that no application was made by Mr. Sanderson to have him (Drais) surrendered to his relatives after the court had adjudged him insane and that instead he permitted the court's order committing him to the asylum at Columbus to stand unattacked.

Drais so far as the petition discloses has no attorney, but signs the petition himself.

He claims that he is damaged in the sum of $10,000 and asks a judgment for that sum against Mr. Sanderson.

When asked about what course he will take in the case, Mr. Sanderson stated that he would promptly file an answer and give Drais the fullest opportunity to obtain an early hearing upon the merits. Mr. Sanderson stated that by so doing the public would be able to learn whether the petition was prompted by the vagaries of an unsound mind.

Chillicothe Makes Application For Aid Provisions Are Low

Local Relief Committee Will Forward Provisions At Once. Fifty Cases of Canned Goods and Fifty Comforts Sent to Suffering Zanesville Citizens.

Some 2400 cans of corn, beans, peas and tomatoes and fifty comforts were sent to Zanesville on the evening train Monday, by the local Relief Committee.

Conditions in Zanesville have been found exceptionally bad, and after careful inquiry the Relief committee sent the above provisions and bedding.

The loss of homes in Zanesville was almost unbelievable, and several thousand persons are still without proper homes or food, and the city was torn up in a horrible manner, entire blocks of houses being wrecked.

Provisions have been running low, and a famine still threatens the stricken city, which is worse than bankrupt, and hundreds of whose citizens have been made penniless.

A call for help was received from Chillicothe Monday, and a shipment will probably be made to that place without delay.

The members of the relief committee who called from that place stated that their provisions and bedding were short, and that meat, flour, beans and comforts were now greatly in demand.

Previous calls to Chillicothe from this place elicited the information that the situation was well in hand, and that no assistance was required. Had it not been for this the local committee would have rendered assistance ere this time. It is believed, however, that until the present time ample supplies had been shipped in, but some of those who have been furnishing relief having ceased the situation at once became serious, and the call for assistance was made accordingly.

A carload of provisions from Sabina passed through this city a day or two ago, bound for Chillicothe.

While he is reported in a serious condition, the attending physicians anticipate an early recovery.

The C. H. & D. through train Tuesday morning carried 200 troops who are returning to Toledo. They have been doing duty at Hamilton.

Run Away From Xenia Workhouse

While out in the yard surrounding the Xenia work house Monday evening late, John and Alonzo Gilmore, two boys sent up from this city for breaking into a school house near Bloomingburg several weeks ago, made their escape and when last heard of were headed for their former home in Springfield.

The boys were found guilty of breaking into the school house and stealing several articles, and after being sentenced to the work house they won the confidence of Supt. Crow, who permitted them to have privileges accorded all "trusties."

The boys have been arrested in Springfield a number of times.

Aimed In Interest Of Common People

TO REDUCE COST OF LIVING

Purpose of the New Tariff Bill, According to the Committee.

Washington, April 8.—The tariff bill introduced in the house by Chairman Underwood is designed, according to the ways and means committee, to make good the promise of the Democratic platform to reduce the cost of living by removing or sharply reducing the duties on the necessities of life and products controlled by the trusts. There have been added to the free list many of the products that enter into the ordinary market basket, and duties on articles that contribute to the warmth and comfort of the workingman and the average American have been slashed.

The users of luxuries will find no comfort in the new bill. They have been called upon to assume a burden fully as large as that laid on them by the present Payne-Aldrich law, and in addition the man of wealth is summoned to contribute more liberally than ever to help remove the burden of taxation on those less able to bear it.

About $120,000,000 of the revenue needed by the government is made up by the imposition of an income tax, the first to be proposed under the recently adopted amendment to the federal constitution. All persons having net incomes over $4,000 and also all firms and corporations and partnerships with an equal income will be called on to help make up this loss. The incomes of the latter will be subject only to a flat tax of 1 per cent, but individuals will be obliged to submit to a tax of a graduated character, increasing with the size of the income.

Generally considered, the tariff bill is a radical downward cut where it concerns the necessities of life and products that are controlled by alleged monopolies.

The tariff bill contains important new administrative features. It does away with the maximum and minimum clause of the present law and substitutes for this system of retaliation a provision for reciprocity treaties.

Free Trade With Philippines.

It also provides for a preference for goods carried in American bottoms and contains features designed to eliminate frauds from the customs service. It puts the relations between the United States and the Philippines on an absolutely free trade basis, and provides for the repeal of the corporation tax law, substituting therefor the income tax.

The most impressive cuts in the new bill relate to foodstuffs and clothing and raw material which is used for building purposes. The bill contains a free list in which is found these items of daily consumption: All dressed and prepared meats, flour, bread, milk and cream, potatoes, salt, swine, corn, cornmeal and fish.

The most impressive single cut in the bill is that by which raw wool goes on the free list. It is now taxed a duty of about 35 per cent ad valorem. By this single change the Democrats have reduced the revenues from customs receipts about $14,000,000.

The bill also provides for ultimate free sugar. It proposes an immediate reduction of 25 per cent and the removal of the remaining duty in three years. It eliminates the duties standard as the test for sugar and provides for a reduction in duties based on the polariscope test.

There have been important reductions in farm products. Butter has been cut from 6 to 3 cents a pound; eggs from 5 to 2 cents a dozen; cattle from a duty of 27 per cent to 10 per cent ad valorem; sheep from 16 to 10 per cent; hay from 46 to 26 per cent; fruit from 27 to 15 per cent; lemons and citrus fruits from 68 to 24 per cent, and poultry from 13 to 6 per cent. Woolen and cotton manufactures have been slashed sharply.

Bryan Takes Charge Of Bible Class In Capital

Washington, April 7.—Secretary of State Bryan made his debut as a leader of a Bible class here yesterday afternoon, when he addressed a large meeting of men at a downtown theater under the auspices of the District Christian Endeavor. The subject of the secretary's address was "The Larger Life," and his discourse was greeted with such acclaim that he pledged himself to continue his work. The subject of Mr. Bryan's next address will be "Faith," but the date of its delivery was not announced.

It originally was planned to have the meetings for men only, but it was decided that the remainder of the series should be open to men and women alike.

Mr. Bryan said he always was glad to address religious meetings for men in an effort to counteract growing tendencies toward skepticism. Resenting the implication often heard, that a man who lives a spiritual life is narrower than he who confines himself to purely material things, Mr. Bryan said:

"If a man felt his spiritual starvation as keenly as he does physical starvation, or if his spiritual leanness showed as plainly as physical leanness, it would be easier to give him spiritual food."

Scheme To Try Out Popular Sentiment

TO TEST MINIMUM WAGE

Financial Venture Launched by Several Prominent New Yorkers.

New York, April 8.—A financial venture has been launched by several prominent New Yorkers with a view of realizing a small profit from a practical test of the minimum wage question. It is planned by the incorporators of the Holland Candy Exchange, the new corporation, to establish a string of candy exchanges and lunch rooms in which the women employees will receive a wage of $12 a week. The scheme will be officially started Thursday, when one of the stores will be opened.

Demmies Set High In Saddle Again

INTEREST IN THE SESSION.

For the First Time in Many Years Democrats Control.

Elements in the extra session of congress are unusual. President Wilson has called the great body together at a time when his party has absolute control of every branch of the government relating to legislation.

This has not been the case before in twenty years. During that period of long ago when the Democrats were in power President Cleveland called an extra session, but the conditions were vastly different from now.

The extra session under President Wilson is remarkable because the lawmakers to a large extent are men of comparatively recent rise to prominence. Because of the fact that the Democratic party is providing a change from Republican rule for the first time in sixteen years great interest is centered upon the doings of congress.

Virtually a new generation of legislators has sprung up. With but a very few exceptions there are no men who figured in congressional doings of twenty years ago who are sharing the responsibilities of the body now.

Of only one thing has the public been absolutely certain, and that is that the tariff would be first and foremost among the subjects for work by the legislators, and that revision downward would be the purpose. The legislators themselves have not known just how the revision is to be managed, and it has been well understood that they would not all be pleased over all the details of the ultimate changes. The subject has been thrashed over so often and earnestly that its intricacies have become feared.

The ways and means committee, which has had the task of drafting the tentative form of the new tariff measure, has been unable to announce completion of its work in advance of the extra session, but the probability is that the measure will be taken up schedule by schedule.

The public has been led to expect that after the tariff is disposed of congress will consider currency, the income tax, Philippine independence and the Panama tolls questions.

Much publicity has been given to the proposed national income tax. The tax will probably apply only to incomes of over $5,000 annually. Certain members of congress hold that this sort of levy would be confined to but a comparatively small proportion of the public and that the revenue would not be sufficient. They argue that an inheritance tax should be added to insure the needed revenue.

county bonds necessitated by the flood emergency.

Representative Vanderheide offered the Cox measure to afford building and loan associations the means to aid home builders in making repairs. It provides for the deposit of state funds in building and loan associations in flood districts just as these funds are now deposited in banks. It authorizes the state treasurer to deposit an aggregate of $3,000,000, the estimated amount of the treasury surplus after the legislature has finished making appropriations.

No association may have more than its paid-up capital and not more than $300,000. The deposits are limited to two years, are to draw interest at 4 per cent, a higher rate than paid by banks, 3.50 to 3.75 per cent, and to be secured by surety, United States government or Ohio public bonds, equal to 105 per cent of the deposits.

Senator Lloyd will introduce a bill making looting a penitentiary offense. It will provide one to seven years' imprisonment for looting a dead body or looting the property of a victim of flood, earthquake, pestilence or fire.

Omaha Gradually Rebuilds on Scenes of Cyclone's Destruction

Photos copyright, 1913, by American Press Association.

PERHAPS by this time you remember Omaha's awful cyclone with merely a flying thought of general regret. But you may be sure the devastating storm is still fresh in the minds and hearts of all Nebraskans. Omaha has gone ahead bravely with the work of reconstruction and in a comparatively few months will be restored. Such spots of death as pictured here are fast being cleared away and built upon again. The top view shows the ruins of Idlewild hall, where many were killed. Search is being made for bodies while the crowds look on. The lower picture shows a trolley car in which several met death and nearby wreckage.

should be met, and our methods should be thorough, as thorough as moderate and well considered, based upon the facts as they are, and not worked out as if we were beginners. We are to deal with the facts of our own day, with the facts of no other, and to make laws which square with those facts. It is best—indeed, it is necessary—to begin with the tariff. I will urge nothing upon you now at the opening of your session which can obscure that first object or divert our energies from that clearly defined duty. At a later time I may take the liberty of calling your attention to reforms which should press close upon the heels of the tariff changes, if not accompany them, of which the chief is the reform of our banking and currency laws, but just now I refrain. For the present I put these matters on one side and think only of this one thing—the changes in our fiscal system which may best serve to open once more the free channels of prosperity to a great people whom we would serve to the utmost and throughout both rank and file.
